

Lynnwood/SR 99 Transit Lanes

The SR-99 Transit Lanes project widened SR-99 from five to seven lanes by converting the existing parking lanes to transit emphasis lanes. These transit emphasis lanes include new paving, storm water controls, new/upgraded signals, transit signal priority equipment, new signage, bus zones, bus shelters and an added curb, which includes gutters and sidewalks.

Mode

Bus

Highlights

Location: SR-99 between 244th Street Southwest and 148th Street Southwest

Budget: $2.55 million

Planning partners: WA State Department of Transportation, City of Lynnwood, The Boeing Company, City of Edmonds, City of Mountlake Terrace, Sound Transit, Snohomish County, Transportation Improvement Board, Community Transit

Consultants & contractors: Entranco (prime consultant to the City of Lynnwood)

